YOUR EDITOR-----

As the staff and I put the finishing touches on the 1953 CLAIRVOYANT it seems only fitting that we make some attempt to recognize the guiding hands of our conscientious administration and the part they have played in making our years at St. Clair High School so pleasant and satisfactory. So, to Mr. Thoe V. Eddy, and Mr. William R. Speer, the staff and I take sincere pride in presenting to them, and to the entire school, our 1953 CLAIRVOYANT.

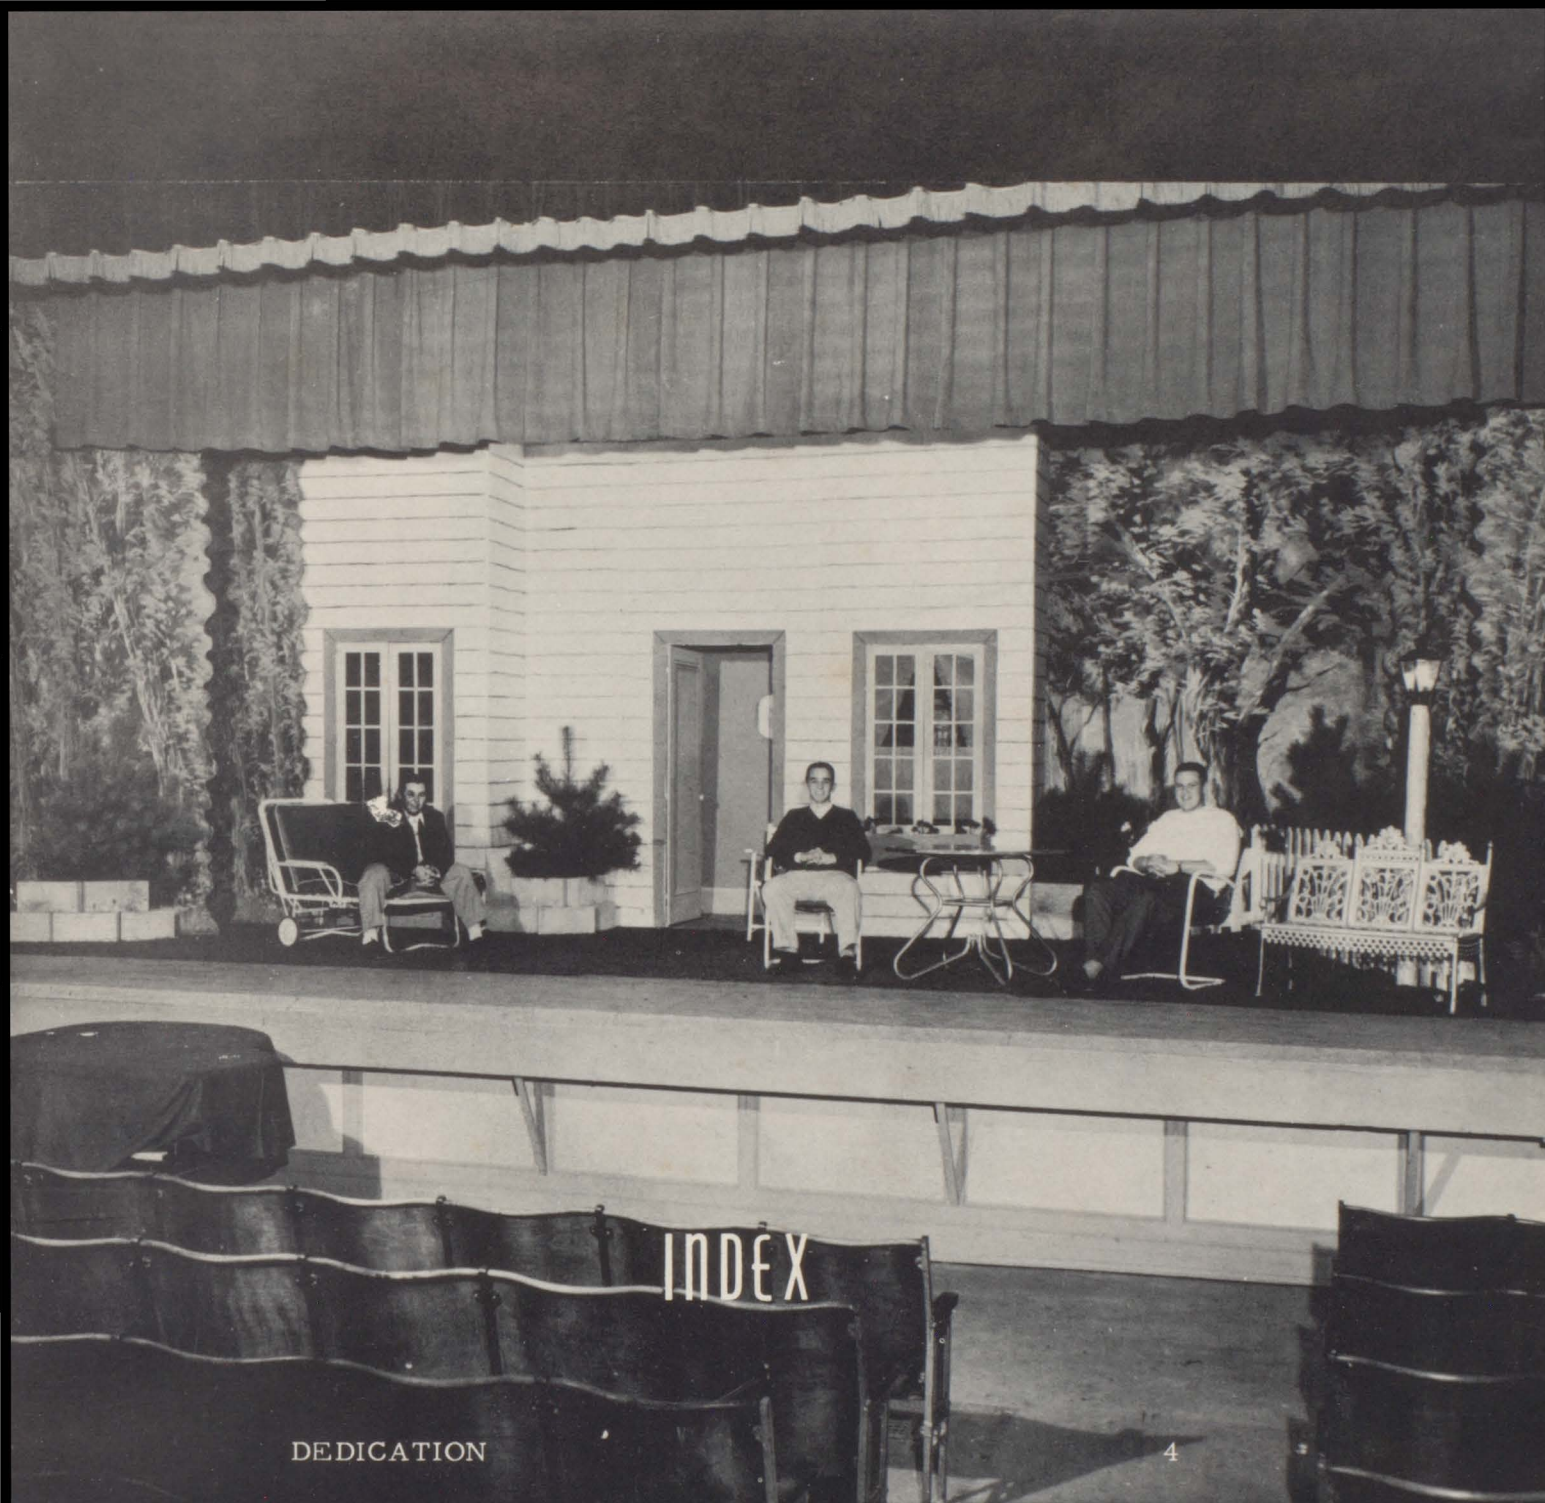

It is my sincere wish that the Editor and Staff of the 1954 CLAIRVOYANT will enjoy the work as much as I have. May it embody and symbolize a part of our appreciation and pride.

We, the annual staff of 1953, feel honored in dedicating our Clairvoyant to a very worth woman. One who has devoted many countless hours in furthering our education and training us for later life.

She has been a member of our faculty since 1925. During that time she has become one of the most outstanding teachers this school has ever had. She has gained the love, respect and devotions of every student who has been fortunate enough to have known her teaching.

To those who remember her best came memories of long strenuous hours devoted to school plays; of wonderful poems written for pep meetings; of her inspirational efforts in the classroom. May this book become a symbol of the part she has played in the lives of the students of St. Clair High School and a sincere tribute to her loyal and faithful service. With this thought in mind the staff of the 1953 Clairvoyant proudly dedicate this annual to our teacher and friend, Miss Mildred Travis.

When a pep meeting's pepless-
May I be prophetic?
It will liven right up
If "Millie's" poetic.

When assembly's so dull,
Not a bit energetic.
It will sure come to life
If "Millie's" poetic.

If the Junior spring banquet
Is really magnetic
I can tell you the reason-
Our "Millie's" poetic.

With jingles and rhyming
And writings aesthetic
ANY program's a honey
When "Millie's" poetic.

CLASS HISTORY

Searching the records, we find that twenty-nine of us, the class of '53, were enrolled in kindergarten in 1940-41. Undoubtedly we "existed" even then and in our own opinion we amounted to something though just what is rather a question. Miss Richardson must have detected signs of genius in Don Markle's gaudily colored, six legged reindeer.

Our memory of the intervening years between kindergarten and junior high are vague. Our seventh grade advisors were Miss Malejon and Miss Balfour. In the seventh grade however, two of our classmates achieved high rank. Archie Sknoieczny and June McGregor were crowned Prince and Princess at the Halloween Carnival.

In the eighth grade year we presented a fashion show as an assembly. We recall certain figures: Dick Ellis as Master of Ceremonies, Barbara Magary in her mother's graduation dress, and the loud, if not musical, musicians of the German Band.

With the ninth grade our official records begin. Our number increased from 57-102, when our classmates from St. Mary's and the neighboring country schools joined us. It took us almost half a year to elect our officers but the final tally gave us Carl Pollex as President, Bob Smith as Vice President, Nancy Schaaf as Secretary, and Don Tassie as Treasurer. Mr. Bohs became a homeroom adviser. That year Natalie Bailey was one of the attendants of the Homecoming Queen. Dick Ellis and Bill Beaudua, through their stentorian voices, helped us to win the cheering cup, which we still proudly possess. Carl Pollex, with fear and trembling introduced Miss Hyde at the best assembly of the year, presented by the Port Huron Glee Club under our sponsorship.

After three years' planning, Miss Balfour's homeroom entertained the remainder of the class in an enjoyable party. (Mr. Bohs' and Mrs. Buell's homerooms still owe a return party.) Following tradition, we sponsored the outstanding social event of the year, the "Petal Promenade," of which June McGregor was chairman.

In the sophomore year our officers were Bob Smith, president; Dick Ellis, vice president; Don Hansel, secretary; who did his work so well he has been chosen secretary every year since; Don Tassie, treasurer. Miss Travis took over Mrs. Buell's homeroom. Natalie Bailey was crowned Queen of the Halloween Carnival. We gained experience for our Senior year when we opened the doors to the "Starlight Plaza" Carnival night. Among our main attractions were Bill Beaudua as the husky bartender, and Carl Pollex singing "Old Devil Moon." Marilyn Sibilla was chairman of our Christmas Dance, "Holly Hop."

In our Junior year we were called upon to prove we amounted to something because our Senior trip was looming closer. In the early fall our new class rings were our pride and joy. Our Junior officers were; Donnabel Ross, president; Natalie Bailey, vice president; Don Hansel, secretary; Marilyn Matthews, treasurer. Mr. Eggers took over Miss Balfour's homeroom. We proudly acclaimed Bob Smith as vice president and Don Tassie as treasurer of Student Council. We froze the last nights of the football season selling hot dogs and coffee. Natalie Bailey and Donnabel Ross represented our class in the Homecoming Queen's Court. Our big money raising activity was the Junior Play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," with Barbara Magary as our never-to-be-forgotten Maudie. After furious debate we decided on the Elk's Club as the setting for the Junior-Senior Banquet, at which Tom Siess ably performed the duties of Master of Ceremonies. At the close of the year Bob Smith and Carl Pollex were elected to attend Boys' State.

Our senior year seemed a long way off when we were Freshmen, but now it's here. We have elected; Bob Smith-President; Don Tassie-Vice-president; Don Hansel-Secretary; Natalie Bailey-Treasurer.

Our list of distinguished members include: Don Hansel, Student Council president; Bob Smith, valedictorian; Marilyn Matthews, ECHO editor, winner of D. A. R. Good Citizen; Salutatorian; Marilyn Sibilla, CLAIRVOYANT editor; Donnabel Ross, Yell Leader; Natalie Bailey, leader of the majorettes and also director of the junior majorettes; Mary Lee Frantz, whose coolness in the face of danger was responsible for saving the lives of four children. Our senior pictures we regard as masterpieces of Askar-Shain's art; our senior play, "Home Sweet Homicide," as one of the most amusing myster-comedies ever presented by a high school cast, and Charles Marvin, Nancy Schaaf, and Marion Leverenz a triple threat to the acting world. We've worked this year with our eyes turned toward Washington; an October bake sale, check room duty at the Diamond Veterans' Party, the baseball concession, dining room service at the Firemen's Dance have built up our class treasury. Our Christmas Dance was one of the successful social events of the year. Though our Senior year is half completed we have much to look forward to--Senior Trip, Junior-Senior Banquet, and the Senior Prom.

With commencement, our high school life comes to a close. Surely it may be said of us that we have not merely existed but we have amounted to something.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

TO THE JUNIORS:

We, the self-assured Seniors, will our undaunted confidence our ability to carry out all Senior activities, in hopes that they reach the heights we have attained with our Smashing Successes.

TO THE SOPHOMORES:

Donnabel Ross--Donnabel and Jim have just moved to Tennessee to start an orchard farm.

Ron Akred--is now chief cook and bottle washer at the St. Clair Inn.

Sally Zacharias and Marion Leverenz --have received an offer from the Arthur Godfrey Toni Show to appear as his Toni Twins of the week.

Chuck Bliven--has quit sailing after 20 years, having now saved up enough money to buy a good farm.

Ruth Anderson--has accepted a position as head of the women's physical Ed Department at U. of M. after faithfully serving Richmond for twenty years in the same capacity.

Natalie Bailey--has just received the Pulitzer Award for her famous column in the NEW YORK TIMES "It's the Fashion."

Betty Lindow's--latest book THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART has been acclaimed by the Book of the Month Club as the greatest book of the year.

Karen Butlin--is looking for something to occupy her time. She complains that being head of the night school at Wayne, manager of the YWCA, Cafeteria, and chief stenographer in the Detroit Traffic Court, does not keep her busy.

Sally Lee Malane--can be found in Germany, with her husband, General Mike Malane, whose headquarters are there.

Ken Sipple--is our only basketball star who reached pro ranks. He's on the Lakers squad, sitting on their bench, perhaps, but on their squad.

Nancy Schaaf--can be reached in New York only by appointment. She has become the leading cover girl model.

Bernadine Brozowski--has taken over Mitchell Yahinshy's post as M. C. on WSDC's Polka Party.

Rose Huff--After four successful years of cheerleading at Pike's Peak College, married the football captain and still cheers him on as he plays for the Green Bay Packers.

Mary Ann Wood--can be found in Madison Square Garden on Friday night, where she has a 58 match winning streak in wrestling.

Barbara Stacey and Marilyn Matthews--have opened a finishing school for girls on the banks of Belle River near Adair.

Pauline Smith--was beyond a doubt the finest New York night club singer before she gave up this career to become the wife of Howard Hyslop.

Dick Ellis--only last week sued Bob Hope for pirating one of the jokes on Dick's own program "Tickled Pink."

June Klemmer--now holds the world record for laughing one week straight.

Marlene Gramzow--is ringing up the cash register in H. A. Smith's at her mother's place while her husband, Bill Laffrey--is out fighting fires.

Charles Marvin--after twenty years in the Navy has finally been promoted to Seamen 1st class.

Bud Thomas--works at the Diamond, plays softball in the summer, and still never misses one of the Marilyn Monroe pictures.

Jim Klemmer--has become assistant manager to his brother Don, who recently took over Stubb's Service Station.

Bill Beaudua--four year all-American football player at M. S. C. is now a star in his 15th year of pro-football with the New York Giants.

Hank Saph--owner of the St. Clair ferry, has recently purchased a new steel car ferry.

Dorothy Kenyon--is being paid $50,000 a year by M. G. M. studios for the use of her cackling laugh for sound effects in "Frankenstein."

Herb Sanger--after 25 years of faithful service has finally become head of the janitor staff at S. C. H. S.

Ray Mayhew--with wife Barbara has become one of the world's greatest missionaries to India.

Marilyn Sibilla--seeing no other way, has married Bob Groff, hoping it will bring her a wage increase.

Whitey Lee--on the way from work at his city job, catches a glimpse of his wife, June McGregor--as she starts out for work at Norah's in order to help support their 12 children. (They disagree with this cheaper by the dozen business.)

Wayne Barshaw--who defeated Ferris Lucas in the race for county sheriff is constantly on the look out for young juvenile hoodlums.

Jim Kindsvater--has just been released from the St. Clair Hospital by its famous woman doctor, Irene Hyslop. Jim was testing a new parachute he had invented which failed to open.

Ed Kindsvater--has built an addition at the rear of Roley's gas station and calls it little Monte Carlo.

Dorothy Edwards--heads a speech class at U. of M. her latest books bears the title. "How to Strengthen Your Voice."

Jim Varty--is taking over Alan Ladd's part in all the famous war pictures for Paramount Studios.

Bob Westrick--is racing every hot rod he can get his hands on. So far he and his mechanic, Leroy Mollan--have made a very good living at it.

Don Hansel--is living very quietly in his country cottage trying his best to write poetry.

Darrell Hasler and Don Schmude--have just bought out the St. Clair River Club, where Don is Steward and Darrell is Pro. In the winter they trap muskrats.

Andy Welser--whom everyone knows as the wealthiest farmer around, has just bought 50,000 shares in John Deere corn planter Co.

Elaine Arnold--five years after she graduated, married the Captain of the S. S. UNITED STATES and has been sailing between New York and Liverpool ever since.

Ken McWain--General Manager of the Diamond Crystal Salt Company, is now driving around with his wife, the former Pat Johnson, in a new Cadillac.

Tom Siess--now in the employment of the Army Research Engineering Dept. has announced that the tests on the new Z bomb have proven successful.

Gerald Lee--manager of the St. Clair I. G. A. Store who has just opened a Suburban branch on Yankee Boulevard has announced that he is installing a new line, the wash day miracle "DIRT."

Mary Lee Frantz--is beginning her campaign speeches for the Vice Presidency of the U. S.

Carolyn Gauthier--is working very diligently for promotion in Salutaris Bottling Company.

Dorothy Currier and Janet Brown--are living in a modern home that they won as first prize on a T. V. program for their play "John's Fifteenth Wife."

Carl Pollex--has gone into the cleaning business. His specialty is removing "ten spots from careless customers' pockets.

Don Tassie--who has taken over his dad's Glove Coating business, is now dipping out gloves for his wife Tuey.

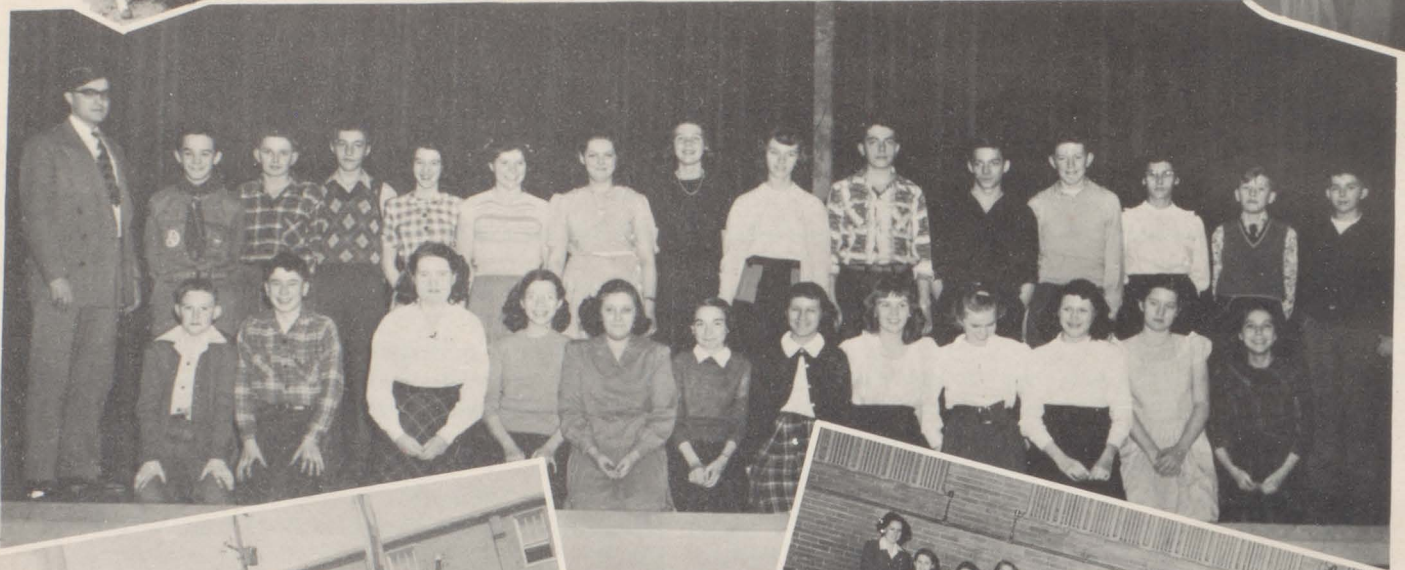

Martha Rettinger--is top secretary for the manager of Macy's department store.

Don Markle--has just drawn up the plans for St. Clair's new three billion dollar High School.

Barbara Magary--has been given a contract as principal of the Elementary School.

Jay McCartney--has received a citation from the President of the U. S. for discovering illegal gold shipments between here and Canada while on duty as Inspector of Customs.

The Student Council is the beginning step in organizing and working of a democratic nation. The preamble states clearly the reason why our council was organized --" to provide for student participation standing between students and faculty, to permit student expression in general welfare and to train students in democratic processes."

The Council is composed of officers chosen at regular open elections, representatives from each homeroom, the Echo editor and the Clairvoyant editor. There are also numerous standing committees under the Council. The officers in this years Council are: President--Don Hansel, Vice President--Shirley Schlinkert, Secretary--Barbara Linderholm, Treasurer--Bob Groff.

We hope ever to strive for a better Council, and earnestly pledge ourselves to the unfinished goal ahead of us "Future."

The Girls Glee Club is composed of a voluntary group of girls. They are called upon throughout the year to participate in various school activities besides performing at various clubs and organizations in the town. This year is the first year that the Glee Club has been able to secure robes. Each year new officers are chosen by the girls, themselves.

The Special Choir is under the direction of Ray Scott, music instructor. This is a volunteer choir that meets every Thursday night. The Choir consists of thirty students, both boys and girls. The Choir wears blue robes trimmed with white collars when they give programs. Some of the projects they will be doing this year are entertaining at private homes during the Christmas season and giving a program in the spring.

ROMANI HODIERNI

(ROMANS OF TODAY)

Thirty six students are now members of Romani Hodierni, our Latin Club, in St. Clair High.

Many benefits are to be derived from an organization such as our Latin Club. Other than the social advantages and fun derived by a group of students interested in the same subject working together, interest in Latin itself is stimulated through Latin games, songs, the presentation of simple plays in Latin, working Latin crossword puzzles, reading or learning Roman or Greek myths, as well as presenting an annual Roman Banquet in costume and attending an opera, movie, or stage play that has some bearing on Roman customs or cultural background.

This year the group has seen the movie "Julius Caesar" and listened to a series of the Orson Wells "Julius Caesar" Shakespearean records; the club also attended the opera "Madam Butterfly."

Members studied the story of the opera and listened to various arias of "Madam Butterfly" before attending.

Last year it witnessed the movie "Quo Vadis."

Having an Italian speaker from the International Center at the University at Ann Arbor as a part of the program for the Roman Banquet in April is planned.

CHEERLEADERS

Each year we cheerleaders strive to bring out the school spirit of our school. With the help of Miss Roller, our advisor, and Donnabel Ross, our head cheerleader, we discovered many new motions and cheers to add to our routines.

During the fall we had a get-together of all cheerleaders in the River District. At this meeting we decided upon one cheer that we could do together during the half at the games. This worked out quite well and we received many compliments.

With the aid of Miss Roller it was arranged for four of us to go to Ann Arbor to the Cheerleaders Clinic, where we learned a great deal.

Each year many girls try out for cheerleading. To try out you must be in the ninth through twelfth grade and have passing grades along with a good personality. When you are elected a cheerleader, you realize the great privilege that has been given you and how you should give your all for the school.

As the season ended St. Clair held second place in the league.

SPRINT ACE Bob Smith scored all 19 points as St. Clair defeated Marine City's title aspirations. Smith capped a St. Clair march in the first period by kicking over from the three-point line and raced for a second score. A 60-yard dash came next. He took a punt and kicked it back O. Bill. The offensive an art. Don Pollex the St. Clair.
